

THE CLINTON PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CENTER IS PROUD TO PRESENT A PARENT UNIVERSITY WORKSHOP

Date:

September 5, 2018

Time:

7:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.

Location:

Clinton Central School Performing Arts Complex

Audience:

Parents of students in grades 4-12

Everything You Wanted to Know About the Tween, Pre-Teen, and Teenage Brain

“Uncover the fascinating research surrounding the unique development of the adolescent brain and learn practical ways that you can help your tween/pre-teen/teen make sense of learning.”

Presented by

Bryan Harris, Staff Development for Education

“Bryan is the Director of Professional Development for the Casa Grande Elementary School District in Arizona. In his career, he has served as a teacher, an instructional specialist, an elementary school principal, and a central office administrator. His work focuses on effective teaching and learning strategies that help all students to succeed.”

For more information, please email Mrs. Jenny Waligory-Lee:
jwaligory-lee@ccs.edu