Please note:

● Before you begin any community service project, consult with either Dr. Lee to ensure the anticipated placement is appropriate.
● No “double dipping” is allowed. If you are receiving community service credit for some other organization/activity, you may not use the same hours twice.
● Community service must be done for a not-for-profit organization.
● Community service can be done during the summer (starting in the ninth grade year).
● All summer hours will be counted in the first marking quarter.
